

Hotel Empordà

Authentic and unique

With over half a century of tradition, this family-run hotel in Figueres, very close to the border between France and Spain, offers all the individuality of a hotel full of authenticity and is strongly shaped by the personality of its emblematic and internationally recognized restaurant "The Motel", the true essence of the experience offered to its guests. The Hotel Empordà, and especially its restaurant, is part of the history of modern Catalan gastronomy.

El Motel Restaurant

The soul of the hotel

A international benchmark for critics and renowned restaurateurs, and with a reputation and prestige to which the regulars and more demanding customers can attest. A symbol of tradition, authenticity and character with a kitchen considered and admired as the cradle of contemporary Catalan cuisine, created by the founder Josep Mercader, setting the right balance between innovation and tradition. Its cuisine is based on local, seasonal and market produce.

The Motel receives a special mention in the Michelin Guide, is recognized with a Sol in the Repsol Guide and is the first Table Distinguée of Logis de Catalunya.
